METROLINK NEWS AND EVENTS

New year-round service to debut in July

Beginning July 7, Metrolink will operate additional year-round weekend trains from Los Angeles and San Bernardino all the way to Oceanside to help you indulge in all your favorite leisure time activities – more frequent trips to the beach cities, Disneyland and other must-see destinations.

Starting July 2, two additional round-trips will be offered from the Laguna Niguel/Mission Viejo Station to the Fullerton Station as part of the Metrolink Service Expansion Program (MSEP) to accommodate growing demand on the Orange County Line. The MSEP is funded by the Orange County Transportation Authority.

And Inland Empire-Orange County Line riders will have the chance to take an additional round-trip from Riverside to Laguna Niguel/Mission Viejo starting July 2.

Look out for the new schedules on metrolinktrains.com, at your station kiosk and on our trains.

Note: Additional trains are pending approval on June 22 by the Metrolink Board of Directors. (Continued on page 5)

Changes that affect you

Systemwide average fare increase effective on or after July 1

During a public hearing held at a special Board of Directors meeting on May 30, the Metrolink Board of Directors approved a 7 percent systemwide average fare increase to help close a $13 million funding gap for the fiscal year 2012-2013 budget. The funding gap was caused by increased operational costs, including a rise in fuel costs and a nationwide labor settlement.

The fare increase comes on the heels of a year when Metrolink was able to increase service by 14 percent without increasing fares. Metrolink has streamlined operations and continues to keep the majority of our costs and headcount flat, despite a 9 percent increase in ridership over the last year.

Increasing fares was the last resort for Metrolink to maintain current service levels, as we take pride in providing affordable service in the region. Of the $13 million funding gap, the fare increase to passengers will generate only $4.5 million. Metrolink's five member agencies will fill the remaining funding gap.

To help mitigate the impact of the fare increase to riders, Metrolink will keep the $10 Weekend Pass at its current price so that families will still have the opportunity to explore the region at an affordable price. We will also launch a rewards program that consists of Metrolink partnerships with businesses along our system to allow riders to take advantage of discounted goods and services.

A word from the CEO

Greetings, Metrolink riders.

After having the privilege of serving you for the past two years, I made the decision last month to step down as Metrolink's CEO. Leaving the agency was an extremely difficult decision for me, but it will allow me to move closer to my aging parents, children and grandchildren and pursue my lifelong dream of operating a railroad holding company – Patriot Rail Corp.

Former Metrolink CEO John E. Fenton

I truly enjoyed the challenge of going to work each and every day to find ways to provide you the safest, most convenient commute possible. Thank you for your kind words of support and also constructive criticism while I worked with the Metrolink Board and employees to accomplish things like improving Metrolink's safety culture, purchasing safety-enhanced Guardian cars, initiating Positive Train Control (PTC) implementation, boosting ridership and providing more service options to enhance mobility for the region.

Metrolink will continue to focus on high standards for safety and performance. I left behind a very talented, dedicated Senior Leadership Team that will work under the direction of a safety-focused Board of Directors to continue implementing new standards, enhancing safety and improving the way we serve our customers.

My remaining time at Metrolink was spent working with the agency to develop a transition plan for the next CEO, who will have the pleasure of serving a noble cause in a region that needs transportation solutions more than anywhere in the country.

Thank you for continuing to ride Metrolink. It is an honor to have had the responsibility of getting you safely to work and back home to your loved ones.

How to cope when Quiet Car guidelines are not followed

Last October Metrolink introduced the Quiet Car on all weekday trains for riders who enjoy a more peaceful commute. The rollout was one of Metrolink's initiatives to improve our level of service for riders. Metrolink encourages passengers to socialize on our trains, just not on the Quiet Car.

While some passengers follow the guidelines for the Quiet Car, others may not be aware of them. Below are tips on how to cope when other riders fail to follow the guidelines:

- Kindly remind your fellow passenger that they are seated in the Quiet Car. Never be demanding or engage in a verbal or physical confrontation with another rider.
- If you do not feel comfortable approaching a passenger who isn't following the guidelines, feel threatened after reminding a passenger of the guidelines or witness what might be the buildup to a verbal or physical confrontation, please inform the conductor, a sheriff or other Metrolink personnel. If you are unable to spot a Metrolink employee, contact our Call Center at 800-371-5465 (LINK) so that Metrolink personnel can be dispatched to the Quiet Car.

Quiet Car guideline refresher

Metrolink encourages passengers to follow the below guidelines while seated in the Quiet Car. Metrolink personnel may ask passengers who fail to follow these guidelines to relocate to another car.

- No loud talking.
- Mute your device. Customers should not use any devices with audio features enabled or without headphones: cell phones, pagers, handheld games, laptop computers, portable CD or DVD players and the like.
- Keep the volume down. Customers using headphones should keep the volume low enough so that the audio cannot be heard by neighboring passengers.

To reduce confusion and increase awareness about the Quiet Car, Metrolink recently installed Quiet Car signs on the lower, middle and upper levels of each Quiet Car so that passengers are immediately aware that they are boarding the Quiet Car. In addition, regular announcements – either live or automated – are made about the Quiet Car during the train ride.

METROLINK SAFETY ALWAYS MATTERS

Beat the heat: take Metrolink to San Clemente Beach

Planning to hit the beach this summer? You can avoid the traffic headaches and parking hassles by taking a ride on Metrolink to beautiful San Clemente Beach. Bask in the sun, frolic in the surf and trek or bike along the San Clemente Coastal Trail, a 2.3-mile-long trail that connects North Beach to Calafia Beach.

When planning your Metrolink beach day getaway, please keep in mind the following:

- All bags, beach chairs, beach toys, beach umbrellas, coolers, towels and other items must be stored under your seat or in the lower level.
- Strollers must be folded and secured in the lower level. They cannot be stored in the aisles.
- Body boards and boogie boards must be stored under the seat or in the lower level. Surfboards are not allowed on board.
- Bikes are allowed on ALL Metrolink train cars. Each passenger car can hold up to three bikes. Bike Cars, identified by a yellow "Bike Car" decal on the side of the train or Bike Train wrap, can hold up to 18 bikes on the lower level.
- Please do not block the aisles or emergency windows with your carry-on items. Please do not occupy empty seats with items. Allow fellow passengers the courtesy of a seat.
- Items that cannot fit between the seats or in the lower level are not allowed on board.
- Beach carts or wagons are not allowed.
- Shoes and shirts are required.
- No smoking or consumption of alcohol is allowed on Metrolink trains.

While you are enjoying the sun, sand and surf, please be aware of tracks and trains, and follow these safety tips:

- ALWAYS cross at designated pedestrian crossings or underpasses.
- NEVER cross, stand on or walk down the tracks. Pedestrians should remain on the trail at all times. Pedestrians are prohibited from trespassing into the rail corridor. Trespassers will be cited for violations.
- ALWAYS expect a train. The San Clemente Coastal Trail is a "trail along the rail," as it shares the corridor with active Metrolink and Amtrak service. Trains may approach from any direction at any time. Trains are quiet and travel faster than they appear to.
- ALWAYS collect your items and wait on the station platform before your return train arrives at the station.

Enjoy fresh Tex-Mex and live music at Nick's Taste of Texas

We Metrolink foodies are always on the lookout for the best "railroad grub" near our train stations. This month, we hopped on a San Bernardino Line train down to Covina to try Tex-Mex food at Nick's Taste of Texas. When talkin' Tex-Mex, we think of flour tortillas, fajitas and Texas chili. Nick's Taste of Texas has all the typical Tex-Mex fixings, made to serve with fresh ingredients.

We sat down with Pat Martinez, the gracious owner, and had the Tex-Mex feast of a lifetime while listening to her stories about her move out West. The beef brisket, cooked for 12 to 15 hours in a smoker, was tender and juicy. The homemade flour tortillas, spicy salsa and tangy barbecue sauce were married wonderfully in the taco plate. The crunchy, amazingly sweet strawberry funnel cake was the "berry" on top of a great meal, but it's not necessarily for those of you who are watching your waistlines so you can fit into your bikinis this summer.

Come to Nick's Taste of Texas if you want a home-cooked Texas meal with live entertainment. Pat will treat you like family and make you feel at home while you dig in to some great Texas barbecue.

Feeling adventurous? Come on a Sunday and grab a mean bowl of spicy menudo or try the famous barbacoa.

Directions

Nick's Taste of Texas is across the street from the Covina Station. Walk 0.1 miles north on North Citrus Avenue toward East Front Street.
